Cowley's welcomes Chef Zach aboard

John Cowley & Sons, downtown Farmington, announced this week the arrival of their new executive chef, Zachariah Pererlin.

Former executive chef, Paul Lindsay, is currently traveling in Europe for an extended period of time.

Chef Zach joins Cowley's with an extensive background. He is an honors graduate from Northern Michigan University in Marquette, with a Bachelor of Science in Hospitality Management. Zach is a Farmington resident.

His local experience includes time at J. Alexander's in Livonia, and most recently at Bistro 127 in South Lyon as executive chef.

His background in banquets and catering paired with his creative menu approach makes him an exciting addition, said the Cowley family.

"We look forward to a long and exciting affiliation with him. Stop by and meet our new chef!" they said in a news release.
